Biography

As ABC News' chief political correspondent, George Stephanopoulos draws on a career that ranged from the campaign trail to the heights of political power. His wit, fortitude and expert political savvy are now shared with millions of television viewers on ABC's Good Morning America and as anchor of the Sunday public affairs program, This Week. Stephanopoulos has won national acclaim for his provocative interviews with such notables as Condoleezza Rice, Sandra Day O'Connor, Tony Blair and Muammar Qaddafi just to name a few. As a Washington political professional, he shares with audiences his perspective on how national and world leaders are shaping the issues of the day. One of President Clinton's key political advisors and author of the best-selling memoir All Too Human: A Political Education, Stephanopoulos makes politics come to life with personal accounts from the political frontlines—delivering humorous tales and revealing anecdotes that put you right in the thick of today's political battles.

George was on top of his game. Very well received. Some were afraid that he would be too biased - but in fact he was very balanced. Good choice for our group.

All Too Human: A Political Education

All Too Human is a new-generation political memoir, written from the refreshing perspective of one who got his hands on the levers of awesome power at an early age. At thirty, the author was at Bill Clinton's side during the presidential campaign of 1992, & for the next five years he was rarely more than a step away from the president & his other advisers at every important moment of the first term. What Liar's Poker did to Wall Street, this book will do to politics. It is an irreverent & intimate portrait of how the nation's weighty business is conducted by people whose egos & idiosyncrasies are no sturdier than anyone else's. Including sharp portraits of the Clintons, Al Gore, Dick Morris, Colin Powell, & scores of others, as well as candid & revelatory accounts of the famous debacles & triumphs of an administration that constantly went over the top, All Too Human is, like its author, a brilliant combination of pragmatic insight & idealism. It is destined to be the most important & enduring book to come out of the Clinton administration.

The Situation Room: The Inside Story of Presidents in Crisis

No room better defines American power and its role in the world than the White House Situation Room. And yet, none is more shrouded in secrecy and mystery. Created under President Kennedy, the Sit Room has been the epicenter of crisis management for presidents for more than six decades. Time and again, the decisions made within the Sit Room complex affect the lives of every person on this planet. Detailing close calls made and disasters narrowly averted, THE SITUATION ROOM will take readers through dramatic turning points in a dozen presidential administrations, including: Incredible minute-by-minute transcripts from the Sit Room after both Presidents Kennedy and Reagan were shot The shocking moment when Henry Kissinger raised the military alert level to DEFCON III while President Nixon was drunk in the White House residence The extraordinary scene when President Carter asked for help from secret government psychics to rescue American hostages in Iran A vivid retelling of the harrowing hours during the 9/11 attack New details from Obama administration officials leading up to the raid on Osama Bin Laden And a first-ever account of January 6th from the staff inside the Sit Room THE SITUATION ROOM is the definitive, past-the-security-clearance look at the room where it happened, and the people—the famous and those you've never heard of—who have made history within its walls.
