Testimonials

I am pleased to provide a reference for Dr. Markus Bernhardt, who delivered a keynote presentation on artificial intelligence at the ATD X Wynn Leadership Summit in Macau in April 2025. Dr. Bernhardt is a prominent authority in the field of AI, and his discourse was both intellectually stimulating and highly informative.

He adeptly navigated complex AI concepts and conveyed them with precision, ensuring accessibility to a diverse audience from over 20 countries while maintaining the technical rigor expected by experts in the field.

His analysis of AI's trajectory and its implications for leadership was particularly insightful, providing a nuanced understanding of emerging trends and their strategic relevance.

Dr. Bernhardt's profound expertise, coupled with his ability to engage effectively with the audience, distinguished his session as a highlight of the summit. I wholeheartedly recommend him for any speaking engagements related to artificial intelligence.
