Biography

Sarah-Jane Mee - Television and radio presenter, fronting live news, current affairs, sport and entertainment.

Sarah-Jane became the first female lead anchor of Sky News breakfast show Sunrise. In 2019, it was announced that Sarah-Jane would present the afternoon show re-named, The Sarah-Jane Mee Show, Monday - Thursday from 2pm - 5pm.

In 2023, Sarah-Jane launched her new Sky News show, The UK Tonight with Sarah-Jane Mee, an hour of powerful interviews, original journalism, debate, and insight, highlighting the most important topics in UK news.

Sarah-Jane has a wealth of experience in sports presenting, having hosted Sky Sports' flagship Premier League Show Saturday Night Football each weekend and being the solo presenter of extended highlights from the Premier League in SNF: Match Choice, which followed the main programme each weekend.

As a popular live event host, she has hosted awards ceremonies including the Inspirational Women Awards, sports events such as the Boodles Tennis tournament and many dinner and Q&A sessions for Google, Amnesty International, the League Manager's Association (LMA), and Chance to Shine charity amongst others.
